

Subject: Fancy a winter warmer?

A warm welcome in Valencia!

Forget thermal pants and long johns...there are far better ways of warming yourself up this winter. Swap your Horlicks for a glass of wine, haul your summer tops out of hibernation and head off to Valencia to soak up the sunshine!

Valencia has a reputation amongst Spaniards as the city that knows how to enjoy itself, and it's easy to see why. Stylish chill-out bars, live jazz, fashionable clubs and Latin vibes combine to make the city come alive when the sun goes down. Valencians like to party, and fiestas, music and cultural festivals are a vital part of life!

If you're a bit of a culture vulture, you'll love the city's ancient Gothic and Baroque buildings including the 13th century cathedral, and of course the Fine Arts Museum. The futuristic City Of Arts comprises a science museum, botanical garden, planetarium, Imax cinema and l'Oceanogràfic, Europe's largest marine park with its own underwater restaurant...perfect for a very unique romantic meal!

And speaking of food...paella and fresh seafood are just some of the tasty local delicacies awaiting you. From modern and stylish gourmet restaurants and trendy tapas bars to rustic tavernas and beachside seafood restaurants, Valencia has it all - fresh cuisine, great value for money and a fun atmosphere!

Flights to Valencia start at just 22.99 GBP!
one way...are you feeling warmer yet? Book your city break to Spain's liveliest city now at www.easyJet.com - and don't forget to check out www.easyJetHotels.com for brilliant hotel bargains!