

inspiring scenery. Verbier has a traditional feel and is great for skiers of all abilities, and Once you've chosen your resort, booking your accommodation is easy. There's a comprehensive selection of easyJet4ski.com now and slope off for some skiing action.

Love is in the AIR!

Instead of blowing your cash on a dozen red roses and an overpriced meal in your local restaurant, why not do something really memorable this Valentine's day? Impress the one you love with a city break to one of our top romantic destinations!

Visit Prague in February and you'll find the ball season, the highlight of the city's year, in full swing. Balls take place in the finest venues and are attended by people of all ages. The list of balls is endless... traditional, smart, leather, even Policeman's balls! If you head to Venice between the 17th to the 28th February, the theatres, St Mark's square and the famous Campi will be alive with musical, theatrical, acrobatic and dance performances. It's all part of the Venice Carnival, and it's an ideal time to take in the beautiful and mysterious city's winding canals, Palazzos and churches.

If you fancy dancing the night away in trendy bars and clubs, you're guaranteed to have a great time in Barcelona, and you can recover the next day with a refreshing stroll along the beach. If you're after something more relaxing, why not treat yourself and your other half to a spot of pampering in one of magical Budapest's 16th century Turkish baths, fed by natural springs of thermal waters. And for the die-hard romantics among you, Rome is the ultimate valentine's destination. Not only is it the site of the matrydom of St Valentine – it's filled with picturesque plazas, top notch restaurants, delightful cafés and historical architecture.

So there you have it. Forget the flowers and the chocolates, say 'I love you' with a city break you'll never forget!

easyJet means business!

When you're travelling on business, you want everything to be as fast and as simple as

Here comes the sun

Our 2006 summer flights are now available! If the grey British climate is making you daydream about sunning